T. F. Ryan Wins Clabaugh Memorial.

Baltimore, Md., May 10.—The Clabaugh Memorial was the feature of this afternoon's program at Pinnlico. The conditions called for horses bred in Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania. It was a dash of four and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, and it furnished a splendid contest, three of the seven starters fighting it out through the homestretch with Thomas Fortune Ryan's Cutaway first home, a nose in advance of Mater. The latter ran coupled with Executor and Mordecai as the R. Parr entry, and the trio were heavily backed by the Virginians. Cutaway, quickest to get going, dashed to the front at the release of the barrier and just lasted long enough to stall off Mater's rush. It certainly was a close thing between the two at the end.

A tremendous gathering turned out, the crowd being by far the largest of the meeting. Besides the Claubaugh Memorial, there was provided as attractions the Glemnore Selling Steeplechase and the Bennert Handicap, a dash of one mile. Some of the best horses on the ground went to the post in the latter event.

The Belmont stable showed what is renuted as Bennert Handicap, a dash of one mile. Some of the best horses on the ground went to the post in the latter event.

The Belmont stable showed what is reputed as being the best two-year-old filly in the stable in Flitaway, which went to the post in the opening dash. Flitaway showed good speed and, after making all of her own pace, won easily from Holiday. August Belmont's Rock View made his first appearance of the season in the Rennert Handicap. He was ridden by McCahey, outran his opposition to the first turn and rated along in front during the remainder of the trip, won well in hand.

George Miller got in from Harry Payne Whitney's Brookdale Paym this morning. Miller has been schooling the borses that James Rowe will race at Belmont Park and the two-year-olds are particularly good breakers. Iron Mask and Whisk Broom have been to the barrier several times and behaved well. Mr. Whitney has purchased one of the Miller starting gates, which will be used to school the polo ponies that will take part in the International polo matches. The idea is to make them quick breakers and handy on their feet. A three-year-old brother to Striker in the Whitney string has been showing much speed in his trials. Former jockey Notter, who is assisting Rowe in whipping the Whitney horses into shape, will be seen in the saddle again at Belmont Park. Notter is to ride in the Witney and the requestion of the Notter sort to be seen in the saddle more frequently.

Bob Levy, general manager of the Jamestown lockey Club rais is the seed of weights so as to permit riders of the Notter sort to be seen in the saddle more frequently.

These stalls will be of a substantial sort and will be used by horsemen who winter at the Norfolk track. The announcement has also been made that no purse of less than $400 will be given at next fall's meeting and that the overnight handicaps will be $600 and $700.

Work on improving the Electric Park plant is progressing. The backstretch and homestretch are both being widened, the former to 55 and the latter to 65 feet.

The stewards have announced the suspension of jockey Mondon for the rest of the meeting for an unsatisfactory ride on Wooden Shoes. The investigation is still on.

BELIEVES MUTUELS HAVE COME TO STAY.

Baltimore, Md., May 10.—H. D. Brown was a visitor at Pimileo a day or two ago. He watched the operation of the mutuels with much interest. He said that the mutuels probably would not be put on at Laurel next fall, but he believed they would eventually drive out the bookmakers everywhere. As he expressed it, "the mutuels have come to stay."

Mr. Brown is a believer in limiting the profits of race tracks. After taking out a fair percentage on the capital, he believes the balance should be put back in bigger purses and stakes, or in a fair such as he is operating at Laurel, where the whole community would derive some benefit.

Mr. Brown's views in this matter are in accord with those long held by Thomas Clyde, the man behind the gun at Pimlico. Mr. Clyde is strong for limiting the profits of the race track to a reasonable return on the capital and allowing the public in some form to share the balance.

DONERAIL WINS THE FASTEST KENTUCKY DERBY ON RECORD

Thirty Thousand Persons See an Outsider in the Betting Defeat Ten Point, the Favorite, by a Narrow Margin in Churchill Down's Historic Fixture

Louisville, Ky., May 10.—The uncertainty of horse racing, that element which makes the greatest of altout-of-doors sports so fascinating, was never more clearly demonstrated than at Churchil Downs this afternoon when Donerail won the thirty-ninth Kentucky Derby in 2.544%, the fastest time in which any mile and a quarter was ever run over this famous old battle ground of the thoroughbreds, and at olds of 91.45 to 1, the longest price for any winner of this classic, which had its inaugural in 1875.

any mile and a quarter was ever run over this famous old battle ground of the thoroughbreds, and at odds of 91.45 to 1. the longest price for any winner of this classic, which had its loaugural in 1875.

The race was a thrilling spectacle and the thirty thousand or so of people who filled the stands to over-flowing, packed the porches of the clubhouse and the r of of the part-matuel inclosure, swarmed over the lawns and jammed against the rails from the infield, which was free and looked much like Washington Park's infield used to when the American Derby was run in Chicago, were giving voice to their enthusiasm long before the finish, which was so stirring as to cause an almost incomparable out their enthusiasm long before the finish, which was so stirring as to cause an almost incomparable roar to be throated into the sunlit sky and to reverberate over and beyond the green of the grounds railed in with this ribbons of white. It was a supremely ecstatic moment for every man and woman there. In that moment no mental account of wagers made and won and lost was taken, It was the joy and excitement of seeing a driving finish ending in a last stride triumpi.

A. L. Aste's eastern colt, 'ten Point, mounted by the Pacific Coast rider Buston, was the heavily supported favorite of the eight starters, and he went out to set the pace, running from two to thee lengths in advance of Charles W. McKenna's Lexington-bred, owned and trained colt, Foundation, with Lofius as his pilot, and H. K. Knapp's Kentucky-bred, but New York-owned, colt Yankee Notions, with Glass up, running close alongside until they were well into the backstretch and ended the first mile less than two lengths behind the leader, and coming fast heads apart. Turning into the homestretch, Loftus thought that he would go through along the rail and take the lead from Ten Point, but Buxton, quickly scenting the move, closed in, causing Foundation to take back a bit, and there were shouts of "Oh, Oh," from the throng, for it seemed as if Ten Point was about to f

He was bred by Mr. Hayes, who now has the dam at his farm in Fayette county, near the station on the Cincinnati Southern railroad, from which he got his name—Donerall. Algie M. was a good race mare and she is the dam also of Sir Catesby and the two-year-old Punch Bowl, recently sold to E. W. Heffner of Sheepshead Bay by Mr. Hayes for $4,000. McGee, the sire of the winner, was brought to America in 1901 by Edward Corrigan, the veteran turfman who retired from racing some time ago and is now a contractor in Kansas City. When Mr. Corrigan disposed of his breeding establishment in 1908, Charles W. Moore, the owner of Mere Hill Stud, which is located on the Newtown road near Lexington, bought McGee and has since been mating him with his good mares, He has now several fine looking yearlings by hfm.

Mr. Hayes said that he did not have a wager en his horse. "It was good enough to have the honor of breeding, owning and training a winner of the Kentucky Derby," he said. "I prize this victory more than any other achievement in my career as a turfman."

Hayes is a modest man who usually wears a smile and has hundreds of friends, many of whom flocked

The winner was ridden by jockey Roscoe Goose, a Louisville boy bred and born and when he came back to the judges' stand had the floral horseshoe put about the coit's neck and then went into the stewards' stand to receive from the hands of Gov. Jas. B. McCreary the floral bouquet, he was one proud young man. The presentation was made in the presence of the stewards, Messrs. Chas. F. Grainger, President of the New Louisville Jockey Club; Matt J. Winn, General Manager of Churchill Downs, and former Judge Chas. F. Price; the placing judges. Messrs. William H. Shelley, Harry Brievogel and dispatched the fields with his usual expertness. The governor said to Goose:

"Snecess in all walks of life counts for everything, whether it be you are statesman or president; today you are the premier jockey, for you have won the greatest race in Kentucky." Jockey Goose thanked the governor and said in reply: "I am the proudest boy in the country at this moment, for I would have rather won this race than any other, for I know this is the greatest race in Kentucky and I am Kentucky born." The presentation speech was a most inspiring one and the governor and the jockey were loudly cheered at its conclusion.

and the jockey were loudly cheered at its conclusion.

Down in the pari-mutuel department, under the broad and long shed, which covers nearly an acre of historic ground, a great mass of men swirted and turned in a constant effort to make their way to and from the machines and the cashiers. It was a busy mart of speculation and even before the first race was run it was predicted by Eugene Elrod and his experienced crew that the "handle" for the day would be larger than on any Derby day in the past, or for that matter, in the history of Kentucky. It was $272.771. There were thirty machines in the ring and one in the clubhouse. There were three machines for $25 tickets; three for $10 tickets; seven for $5 tickets, and eighteen of $12 tickets.

Now, as to the other races. Florence Roberts was best of the thirteen sprinters that went to the post for the opening race and won by a neck in a drive with Lady Lightning after leading all the way. They were about equal choices in the estimation of the public.

The second race produced a stirring finish and at the same time a double for jockey Loftus, who hustled Theodorita up in time to nose out Birdie Williams, which did the leading after the first couple of strides. Aunt Manie, another daughter of Uncle, was third, close up, with the favorite, Susan B., only half a length away.

George Lindenberger, the official timer, hung out 4445, two and two-fifths of a second faster than the American record, as the time for the half mile. This, of course, was an impossibility for these horses over this track, but no correction was made, the stewards deciding, after the mistake had, been called to their attention, to announce the official time. By the watches of the timer for the press stand and of several of the horsemen, the time was 14815.

The third race was no more than an airing for Sprite the four was not did to the course of the timer than an airing for challenge of Helen Barbee and got second place in a drive.

The third race was no more than an airing for Sprite, the four-year-old half sister to Yankee Notious. She was a 1 to 2 choice in the betting and won with plenty to spare. Sebago withstood the challenge of Helen Barbee and got second place in a drive.

The lifth race went to Vandergriff, a likely looking racing tool from the stable of John W. Schorr. He won handily from a lot of good ones, with Francis second and Mac third.

Siremons won the closing race, getting up in the last eighth of a mile. He had been held in reserve and was going away at the finish, with Melton Street second and Capitan Bravo third. It was third that and quite chilly when the last of the vast throng went on its way cityward from the Downs.

THOMAS P. CROMWEIL THOMAS B. CROMWELL.

Notes of the Day,

Gov. James B. McCreary occupied the box immediately behind the judges' stand, which is annually reserved for Kentucky's chief executive and, in his parly were Lieut. Gov. Ed McDermott, Secretary of State C. F. Creecelius and Mrs. Creeclius, Miss Corinne Courad, State Treasurer Thomas Rhea; Attorney-General James Baskett, Chairman Daniel E. O'Sullivan, of the State Board of Prison Commissioners, and Justus Goebel, brother of the assasinated governor, William Goebel, and one of Governor McCreary's closest friends. Governor McCreary said that he was expecting that Foundation would win the race, but he was not wagerling. He said that as he was getting on the train at Frankfort this morning, a gentleman stepped up to him and whispered: "Ten Point is a cinch to win the Derby," At the same time he slipped his card into the governor's hand. He was an undertaker from Zion City, Ill., the town that Dowie built. The governor was invited to the stewards' stand during the running of the Derby.

Johnson N. Camden, owner of Hartland Stud. and likewise of the Breeders' Futurity winner. Imperator, and the good three-year-old, Helios, was the only member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission who was not present. He was detained in Washington on business. Chairman Milton Young came down from Lexington this morning on the "Foundation special," which brought over 500 persons from the blue grass region. T. Hart Talbott came over from Paris last night. President Charles F. Grainger, of the New Louisville Jockey Club, and George J. Long, owner of Bashford Manor Stud, have their homes here, and both appeared early at the course, where General Manager Matt J. Winnentertained the officials at dinner. Secretary J. Pelham Johnston of the commission was also on hand.

The Kentucky Association was represented by Messrs. R. L. Baker, O. H. Chenault and Price Headley of the executive committee, and by super-intendent James P. Ross. Mr. Baker said that financially, as well as otherwise, the spring meeting at Lexington was the most successful in all the track's history, but that instead of declaring a dividend, the profits would be spent in improving the track and grounds.

Harry H. Aiken, of Cincinnati, entered a protest against the starting of the horse Sam Hirsch in the name of Samuel Hirsch, a Cincinnati tobacconist, but the officials paid no attention to it. The Circuit Court at Covington several months ago gave Hirsch posession of the gelding.

Green B. Morris, the dean of American trainers, has never missed seeing a Kentucky Derby. He won the race in 1882 with Apollo. In the crowd were two colored men who rode winners of the Kentucky Derby—William Walker, who piloted Baden Baden in 1877, and E. Henderson, who won on Joe Cotton in 1885.

Lake McLuke ,the two-year-old colt by Ultimus—Midge, in the stable of John W. Schorr, is on the shelf. Dr. Bob Bryan, who came from Lexington this morning and examined him, advised Johnny Schorr to give him a long rest.

Chairman August Belmont, Mrs. Cook, mother of Mrs. Belmont, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bird, came over from Lexington this morning and were at the clubhouse. They returned to Lexington this evening, where they will remain at Mr. Belmont's Nursery Stud for four or five days.

Messrs. H. K. Knapp, F. R. Hitcheock and Andrew Miller, Richard M. Bull. Alexander Smith Cochrane and B. M. Street, were other New Yorkers who saw the races today. Every one of the easterners expressed surprise and gratification at the immensity of the throng and said that the Kentuckians are undoubtedly the greatest racing devotes in America.

H. H. Roberts, of Simcoe, Cnn., was among the visitors, as was al immense crowd and the firm basis on which the sport is conducted in this state.

Trainer Karrick had no excuses to offer for the defeat of Yankee Notions, "I thought when he moved up on the stretch turn that he would draw out to an easy victory, but he did not seem to be good enough."

good enough."

Commenting on the many stories that he has been offered $50,000 for Ten Point, owner Aste said before the Derby running, "I have never lad an offer for the colt. I have never priced him, and I have given all prospective purchasers the same answer, that he is not for sale,"

KENTUCKY HANDICAP NEXT

WITH DERBY OUT OF THE WAY, $13,000 EVENT AT DOUGLAS PARK ATTRACTS ATTENTION.

Pick of the Derby Field, Besides Other Crack Three-Year-Olds, and Best of Mature Horses in Training, Among Eligibles.

Louisville, Ky., May 10.—Now that another Kentucky Derby has passed into history, interest in the turf world is centered in the outcome of the $13,000 Kentucky Handicap, to be decided on the opening day of the spring meeting at Douglas Park, and the rich Latonia Derby, $6,000 added, which is set for Saturday, June 14, at the Kenton County course. The Douglas Park meeting will begin on Handicap day, Monday, May 26, and end on Saturday, June 7, embracing twelve, racing days, while the Latonia meeting will open on Monday, June 9, and end on Saturday, July 5, a period of twenty-five racing days.

The Kentucky Handicap is almost sure to number among its starters two stars that were kept out of the Kentucky Derby by sickness, namely, Hawthorn and Frederick L. Both of these crack three-year-olds are taking slow work and if they meet with no further mishaps they must be reckoned as certain to wear colors in this mile and a quarter race.

Other great borses eligible to this event include Ten Point, Adams Express, Christmas Star, High Private, Edda, Leochares, Judge Wright, John Furlong, His Majesty, Prince Hermis, Foundation, Yankee Notions, Rolling Stone, Floral Park, Irish Gentleman, Helios, Frogless, Buckhorn and Rudolfo. It is anticipated that with a fair day and a good track the mile and a quarter record in Kentucky will be lowered in this race.

The Latonia Derby this season will undoubtedly be one of the most remarkable three-year-old races ever run in America. It will be the richest Derby of the year. Two three-year-olds that are being prepared for the race and that were not entered in the Kentucky Derby, and are not eligible to the Kentucky Handicap, are G. M. Hendrie's Great Britain and Weber & Ward's Solar Star.

Both at Douglas Park and Latonia, Manager John Hachmeister has many big improvements under way, all of which will be finished by the time for the opening of the meetings at these two great racing plants. Both tracks will present to the public a most beautiful appearance this spring and every convenie

SHADRACH CONTINUES TO WIN.

Spokane. Wash. May 10.—A large week-end crowd visited Alan this afternoon and witnessed the second running of the Apple Blossom Selling Stakes, four and one half furlongs, for two-year-olds, it brought together the best of the juveniles there. Shadrach, the winner, owned by C. E. Rogers, reduced the track record by one-fifth of a second when he ran the distance in 54% over a track that was not at its best. Shadrach has demonstrated that he is the best two-year-old here, having won three consecutive races. Othello, which ran so three consecutive races, othello which ran so the last sighth. Paw held the eminder of the ontestants safe at all times.

Lady Panchita won the five and one-half furlongs handicap in impressive fashion, while Seneca easily outstayed Imprint, the favorite.

The spirit of western race goers was shown at the track this afternoon when the posting of the horses that finished first, second and third in the Kentucky Berby at Louisville caused a mighty shout to go up.

TRAINING GOSSIP FROM WOODBINE.

TRAINING GOSSIP FROM WOODBINE.

Toronto, Ont., May S.—The weather was changed at Woodbine yesterday, and the balmy mornings of the early part of the week were succeeded by an unpleasant coolness, though there was an absence of wind, and the track was in its best order, without "dogs" to worry trainers who had horses to work. These were not numerous, as workday fell on the previous morning for most of the stables. The most interesting feature of the day was the first gallop of the Waterloo platers. Mr. Seagram's horses twere not sent along fast. Volvode, Maid of Frome and Battle Song galloped a mile in 1:49%. Volvode carried much more weight than either of the others, broke behind them, and finished in front; so that he looked like much the best of the three. Vale of Avoca did his preliminary on the road, and then put in five furlongs in 1:06% on the track. Like his half-sister, Mill on the Floss, he likes to have his own way about things.

The two-year-olds went a half mile in :55%. Dark had Extrayagant and Froisart in the other.

At Once and Ruslling had three-quarters in 1:21. The plater Tobler, in Tom Meagher's stable, did half a mile in company with Black River in :54%. The three-year-old filly Anster, the only Canadian-bred outside of his own stable, that defeated Hearts of Oak last season, will not be a starter in the Plate. Owner and trainer J. S. Flynn said yesterday that she was not progressing in her training satisfactorily, and he had discontinued training her for the Plate, considering it inadvisable to try to get her ready for a mile and a quarter journey just yet.

Charles Boyle, the dean of Canadian turfmen, was down from Woodstock yesterday, looking as hearty as ever, and renewing his youth by his visits to the course. Mr. Boyle is a breeder now, and will have nothing running in his colors this year.

The Brookdale horses will not come down from Barrie for a week or more. They are better situated than other Canadian strings at home, as there is a mile track, in good order, on the Brookdale Farm, Ed. Glasseo is sending Joe Gaiety down from Windsor to Barney Cole, to be trained for steeple-chasing.

Trainer Stanley Mumford is taking charge of the two year-olds Percy Ryan and Golden Gleam.

J. L. Hamilton arrived with two head, one of which is the Plate candidate Porcupine.

This morning's proceedings at Woodbine were the most eventful of the season. The Gidding's plater, Hearts of Oak, covered a mile in 1:44%, the record work-out for this spring. Tobler, another plater, broke both legs and was destroyed; the two-year-old, Sun Loop, dropped dead, the result of an internal hemorrhage, and Ta Nun Da unseated his rider and ran away a mile. The boy escaped injury. All the King's Plate candidates, excepting those of the Seagram stable, were sent along by their trainers, and there was a good attendance of entusiasist to witness the work.

Hearts of Oak worked alone and pulled up not the least bit distressed. Another plater from the Giddings stable, Ondramida, went a good mile in 1:48. Venus Urania, in company with Ondramon, galloped a half in :51%, Ondramon's half was in :51. Alibas went a half in :50%, Hee Hive in :50%, Half Law in :52% and Sarolia three-quarters in 1:17%.

H. H. Roberts' plater, Mousolus, attracted much

52. five-eighths in 1:06, three-quarters in 1:18%, mile in 1:36%, and, bulling up, reached the 1 1-8 miles in 2:02. He is doing all that has been asked of him by trainer Gleason and appears to be a keen contender for the Guineas.

Trainer Eddie Whyte sent the Hendrie plater, Rockspring, accompanied by White Caps, a mile in 1:49%, the best work he has shown to date. Slipper lay and Martena breezed three-eighths in :38%. Miccosukee and Writ went a half in :53.

The Bavies horses were also worked, and, as usual, Plate Glass was in the limelight. He went twe-eighths in :101% and three-duarters in 1:15, pulling up the last furlong. The platers, Meter and Gold Bud. covered five-eighths in :38%. Rocket, Heart's Delight, Dill Don and Duke of Hester breezed three-eighths in :38.

The two platers, Aurora Raby and Corflambo, worked together one-quarter in :24%, half in :50%, five-eighths in 1:79%. Liberty Hall and The Usher went three-eighths in :38.

The two platers, Aurora Raby and Corflambo, worked together one-quarter in :24%, half in :50%, five-eighths in 1:705, three-quarters in 1:20, and the mile in 1:49%. Corflambo was hopelessly in the rear at the end, and appears to be outclassed.

Other work-outs were as follows:

Amberite-Five-eighths in 1:06%. Doing well. Auster—Quarter mile in 25%. She will not be a starter in the Plate.

Bridoon—Quarter mile in 25%. She will not be a starter in the Plate.

Bridoon—Quarter mile in 1:56.

Rosturtium—Quarter mile in 1:56.

Rosturtium—Quarter mile in 1:57%.

Tom Sayers—Half mile in 54%, cantering.

After working a half mile in 55%, and while being cooled out, the two-year-old colt, Sun Loop, by Peep o'Pay—All Charm, owned by Harry Giddings, Jr., dropped dead from an internal hemorrhage. He was file best youngster in the Giddings stable, having been purchased at the Falmer sale last fall. While rounding the stretch turn, working with lask fiver, the plater, Tobler broke both hind legs above the bock and was later destroyed. He was a bay gelding, 3, by Pershore—Mrs. Nelson, and owned by George Atkinson of North Toronto.

Trainer Eddie Gleason announced that Half Shot and Britain's Aid, the two platers owned by Hon. Adam Beck will not be starters in the race for the Guineas.

DAILY RACING FORM.

Messrs. Dyment have finally decided to ship the Brookdale Stable to Woodbine on Saturday, and their arrival will complete the list of Canadian stables to take part in the coming meeting.

TWELVE MORE KEENE YEARLINGS SOLD.

Lexington, Ky., May 10.—Arthur Hancock, master of the Ellersiic Stud, Charlottesville, Va., announces that he has closed a deal with the estate of James R. Keené, whereby he secured the Keene interest in twelve yearlings, six colts and six filles by the handsome young horse Celt. a sou of Commando and Maid of Erin and out of the best producing mares in the Hancock establishment. Mr. Hancock said that the average price for those yearlings was approximately the same as the average price paid by James Butler, of New York, for the twenty-two filles and fourteen colts he bought a short while back from the Keene estate. The list is as follows: Chestnut colt, dam Mino (dam of Ringling, Ringmaster, Clown and Circus); chestnut colt, dam Eostre (dam of Mistiss, Marster, Orphan Lad and Alice); chestnut colt, dam Sanci (dam of T. S. Martin); chestnut colt, dam Meta Russell (dam of Colonel Padden and sister to Russell); chestnut colt, dam Beller Fleur (dam of Inquieta); chestnut colt, dam Rellerslie (dam of Inquieta); chestnut filly, dam Network (dam of Lace, Workman and Workmaid); chestnut filly, dam fanna (dam of The Idol and sister to Red River); chestnut filly, dam Inanna (dam of The Idol and sister to Red River); chestnut filly, dam Inanna (dam of The Idol and sister to Red River); chestnut filly, dam Inanna (dam of The Idol and sister to Red River); chestnut filly, dam Inanna (dam of The Idol and sister to Red River); chestnut filly, dam Inanna (dam of The Idol and sister to Red River); dam Aurine (dam of Roler River); bay filly, dam Lizzie H. (dam of Red River).

NEWCOMER IN EASTERN RACING.

New York, May 10.—Alexander Smith Cochrane, of New York, multi-millionaire, is expected to cut a big ligure on the turf this season. John E. Madden will advise him and C. T. Patterson is to train for him. On the steamship Minneapolis, due here Monday, is the four-year-old gelding, Post Boy, by Avidity—Low Gill, the property of Mr. Cochrane. He raced in Ireland under welter weights last year and was placed in all three of his starts.

Oscar Lewisolni's two-year-old, Boots, which wo a race today at Kempton Park, near London, is a son of Hessian, by Watercress. The colt was sold in England last year.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The commission accruing to the Pimlico management from the pari-mutuels is exceeding in amount the revenue formerly derived from the bookmakers.

R. T. Wilson is among the eastern owners who have made a liberal number of entries for the Blue Bonnets stakes. The Blue Bonnets track is in exceptionally good condition for so early in the season and Montreal-owned horses are now receiving their training over it regularly.

H. G. Bedwell, who has not raced on the Canadian cirvuit for several years, has made several entries for the stakes of the Montreal Jockey Club and has made application for stabiling accommodations at Blue Bonnets. He plans to race at other Canadian tracks this season as well.

It is announced that Edward B. McLean, of

It is announced that Edward B. McLean, of Washington, D. C., son of John R. McLean, intends to give up his $300,000 stable of harness horses which have been winning ribbons right and left, and go in for thoroughbred English hunters. Mr. McLean will sail for England May 17 to buy a string of thoroughbred English hunters, which will probably be one of the finest, if not the best, in the country.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. M., St. Louis, Mo. Snider rode Hedge Ross May 8. W. S., Alan, Ida. Golf Ball was not raced at Jacksonville, Fla.

P. E. P., Lockbourne, O. Cannot find horse of the name given in the Stud Book or in racing. S. L., Pittsburgh, Pa. It means that the horse moved up again after losing ground at some point.

PIMLICO FORM CHART

PIMLICO, MD., SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1913.—Eighth day. Maryland Jockey Club. Spring Meeting of 16 days. Weather clear.

Presiding Steward, Frank J. Bryan. Presiding Judge, William P. Riggs. Starter, A. B. Dade. Racing Secretary, William P. Riggs.

Racing starts at 300 p. m. (Chicago time 2:00 p. m.). *Indicates apprentice allowance.

driving. FLITAWAY, after being in closest pursuit from the start, wore HOLIDAY down and passed him on the last turn and was inclined to loaf after getting to the front, but drew away quickly when struck with the whip. HOLIDAY took the lead at once and set a dazzling pace, but tired in the last eighth. VEILCHEN finished fast and gamely and is evidently better than rated heretofore. OLYMPIA finished fast and probably will do soon. CANNOCK ran fairly well.

Scratched—7958 Liftlest Rebel, 110; 8032 Beau Pere, 110; 7958 El Blod, 110; 7994 Lady Esterling, 110.

Overweights—Cannock, 3 pounds; Superintendent, 1.

Went to post at 5:35. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. VANDERGRIFT had to be hard ridden for the first eighth but, showing great speed, sprinted into the lead with a rush while rounding the stretch turn and won by a safe margin. FRANCIS ran forwardly and stood a drive gamely, but tired and just lasted long enough to hold second place. MAC ran an excellent race and lost ground by going wide on the last turn. DR. SAMUEL tired in the stretch. BOOTS AND SADDLE ran green and will improve with racing.

Scratched—S106 Woodrow, 104.

Overweights—Battling Nelson. 21 pounds; Vandergrift, 3; Harbard, 2; Boots and Saddle, 4.

LOUISVILLE ::: KENTUCKY

A FREE SLEEPER

AT PIMLICO ON SATURDAY, MAY 17.

I am right here on the ground, with my eyes wide open. I know everything stabled here. I watch them morning and night. I know just what is being done by certain smart cliques who get the money every year at Pimlico. I followed certain horses from Benning, where the good things are put in shape. I know just whats what in racing, and on Saturday I will make 100 people acquainted with something money couldn't buy—when certain eastern interests will cut their first pie. I can't go into detail—only—here is a chance to get aboard a real killing—and the mutuel machines will give us a grand opportunity to get a

YOU

Our SYSTEM WON, $82,20 at the Lexington meeting of 11 days. The biggest bet made was $12. At Pimlico our system is $42.10 winner on the first 5 days. The biggest bet made there was $6.00. A small capital can make a good income playing this system. Those players who were playing this system at Coeur d'Alene we would advise to transfer their play to the Kentucky tracks. This system can be played on track or in poolroom or handbook. As those people who bought this system for $25.00 are good winners at Lexington, we are going to offer this same system from now on for $10. Start playing at Louisville. This system has been filed with Daily Racing Form.
